RE-ENROLLING FOR NEXT SCHOOL YEAR

The inquiries from families looking for a school next year have started. We need to begin planning for enrollment next school year to clearly communicate to prospective families how many spots are available in our classrooms. This week I will send out a link for parents to fill out to let us know your plans for next school year.

Registration for the 2018-2019 school year is now open and you can receive the early-bird discount registration fee of $275.

PHOTO CONSENT FORM

Last week I sent out an email with a link to update our photo consent forms. If you have not taken a quick moment to fill it out, please do so. We appreciate your help in this regard.
