BASKETBALL

We have one game this week against Concord Academy which will be played at CLHS in Temecula. We will leave at 11:30 and hope to return by 3:45/4:00 depending on traffic. If you are able to drive for this game, please let me know.

Also, with rain in the forecast, there is a possibility that the Monday practice will be cancelled. If we decide to cancel the practice, I will send a text to parents to let them know.

CALENDAR UPDATE

On the yearly calendar, you will see a half day on January 25 for the Reformation Tournament. Since our first game is not until 4:00, we will instead have a full day of school.

NO SCHOOL – NEXT MONDAY

There is no school next Monday, January 21, for Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

END OF THE SECOND QUARTER

This week Friday is the end of the second quarter, and report cards will be sent home next week.

SMALL GROUPS - PARENTING

The small group Bible study held at the Vogel house will be starting back up this week. We meet on Tuesday nights starting at 6:30. This week we will be looking at one of the most important parts of parenting – having a strong marriage. If you are interested in attending, please let me know.

SHOW LOVE FOR YOUR SCHOOL

Now is the time that most prospective families are looking for a school for their child, so now is the time to show some love for Shepherd of the Hills and here are some ideas how:

1. Have any friends or neighbors looking for a school? Tell them about Shepherd of the Hills, have them check out our website, or give them my contact information.
2. Have you shared the blog post about Shepherd of the Hills on San Diego Mommy Blog? I will be sharing it again later this week. It does a great job of sharing what makes Shepherd of the Hills a special school.

3. Have you given an online review of the school lately? There are all sorts of avenues to show love for your school online: Yelp, Google, Facebook, PrivateSchoolReview, and GreatSchools.org.
